MILWAUKEE BAR ASSOCIATION ANNOUNCES PRO BONO PUBLICO AWARD WINNERS

October 22, 2015, Milwaukee – To show its continued support of pro bono service by Milwaukee area legal practitioners, the Milwaukee Bar Association recognized an individual attorney, an organization, and a law student for outstanding pro bono work with its annual Pro Bono Publico awards. The award recipients were honored at the MBA's 12th Annual State of the Court Luncheon last Thursday, October 15, 2015, at the Wisconsin Club, Milwaukee.

The selection committee evaluated many nominations employing general criteria as follows: developing innovative ways to deliver volunteer legal services or improve access to justice, participating in activities that provide legal services to the poor or increase access to justice, and working on legislation that increases access to justice.

The Milwaukee Bar Association 2015 Pro Bono Publico award recipients include:

Individual attorney: Patrick J. Schoen, Quarles & Brady

Organization: Leander J. Foley Matrimonial American Inn of Court

Law student: Kasey Parks, Marquette University Law School

About the Milwaukee Bar Association

Established in 1858, the Milwaukee Bar Association is the fifth oldest bar association in the country. The MBA aids in the administration of justice, promotes high standards of learning and professional conduct, provides opportunities for law-related community service and fosters collegiality within the legal community.
