VON BRIESEN WELCOMES M&A ATTORNEY THOMAS A. MYERS

Randall D. Crocker, President and CEO of von Briesen & Roper, s.c., announced today that Thomas A. Myers has joined the firm as a Shareholder in the Business Practice Group. Myers focuses his practice on mergers and acquisition transactions. He has many years of effective service in representing sellers and buyers of businesses including public companies, family-owned entities and investment banking and other equity funds. He has represented manufacturers, distributors, large retailers, software companies, mezzanine lenders, private equity sponsors and financial institutions in mergers and acquisitions, succession planning, finance and taxation.

Crocker said, “I have had the pleasure of knowing Tom for many years and I could not be more pleased that he has elected to become part of von Briesen. Tom’s reputation as an effective, value added closer in the M&A marketplace is well known. His significant experience and industry knowledge in partnership with our vonBriesenOneSource team will enhance our client service offerings delivering game changing outcomes for our clients”.

“I am so pleased to be a part of the von Briesen firm and I look forward to practicing with my many friends at the firm. I have been impressed with their commitment to client service and to effective, value added and timely service. I know that we will do great things together,” Myers said.

Myers is licensed to practice law in Wisconsin and Illinois. Myers serves on the Board of Directors for Cardinal Stritch University (Chair, Board of Trustees 2013-2017) and Ozaukee County Economic Development Corporation. He holds a J.D., magna cum laude, Alpha Sigma Nu, from Creighton University and a B.A. from Loyola University Chicago. He resides in Mequon, Wisconsin.
