SUPREME COURT CANDIDATES TO MEET IN MILWAUKEE BAR ASSOCIATION FORUM

Milwaukee, WI – January 5, 2016 The Milwaukee Bar Association will host a judicial forum for the candidates seeking election to the Wisconsin Supreme Court on Wednesday, January 27, at noon.

The forum is open to MBA members and the general public. All Supreme Court candidates have been invited to participate in the moderated forum and the format for the forum will allow for audience questions submitted to the moderator.

“The MBA is dedicated to educating its members and serving the public,” says James D. Temmer, Executive Director of the MBA. “This forum provides an opportunity for people to familiarize themselves with the Supreme Court candidates and to be informed voters when they go to the polls for the primary election on February 16.”

The judicial forum will be held as follows:

Wednesday, January 27, 2016

Noon – 1:00 p.m.

Milwaukee Bar Association – 424 East Wells Street

Wisconsin Supreme Court candidates:

Rebecca Bradley, Wisconsin Supreme Court (incumbent)

Joe Donald, Milwaukee County Circuit Court

JoAnne Kloppenburg, Wisconsin Court of Appeals District IV

About the Milwaukee Bar Association

Established in 1858, the Milwaukee Bar Association is the fifth oldest bar association in the country. The MBA aids in the administration of justice, promotes high standards of learning and professional conduct, provides opportunities for law-related community service and fosters collegiality within the legal community.
